INTERNATIONAL BIENNIAL OF MEDIA ART NATIONAL TOUR ALBURY LIBRARYMUSEUM, ALBURY, NSW

SATURDAY 3 DECEMBER 2011 - SUNDAY 29 JANUARY 2012
SUITABLE FOR ALL AGES.

Experimenta Utopia Now International Biennial of New Media Art will be on its final stop when it tours to Albury LibraryMuseum, Albury, NSW in December.

The exhibition, which opens just in time for the school holidays, brings together a superb collection of Australian and international artworks and will showcase a number of the artworks seen at the exhibition's Melbourne Launch in February 2010.

Artworks will include interactive works TouchMe, the giant human photocopier by Dutch duo Blendid Interaction Design, and Akousmaflora, the enchanting singing plants by French artists Scenocosme. Ominous to optimistic Experimenta Utopia Now will continue to delight and inspire audiences of all ages.

Experimenta Utopia Now, chases the dream of a perfect world, critiques the scope for happiness on earth as we know it, pokes fun at social and physical boundaries and questions the human race's ability to preserve itself. Experimenta Utopia Now is captivating, interactive, and thought provoking. From large-scale installations to intimate and extraordinary indoor exhibitions, the artworks shown worldwide by Experimenta are always evocative, intriguing and uniquely multi-sensory and that is certainly the case with this stunning exhibition.
